

House Resolution No. 2570

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State residents who have admirably dedicated their time and energy to helping ensure that every student has the opportunity to establish exceptional foundations for future activities with societal leadership and lifelong learning; and

Whereas, Linda Eisinger has attained considerable distinction as a Third Grade teacher at West Elementary School in the Jefferson City School District; and

Whereas, Linda Eisinger enhanced her impressive record of accomplishments when she received Jefferson City Public Schools Teacher of the Year honors and accolades on Thursday, April 29, 2004; and

Whereas, a veteran of twenty-six years in the classroom, Linda Eisinger was one of more than one hundred nominees for the Teacher of the Year award which is accompanied by a new Macintosh computer; and

Whereas, in addition to Teacher of the Year recognition, Linda Eisinger also earned the $2,000 Frank and Margaret Railton Award for outstanding teaching at the elementary level; and

Whereas, Linda Eisinger cares deeply about her young charges, is a mentor to other teachers, and is a true inspiration to young people who are considering entering the field of education; and

Whereas, Linda Eisinger is joined in her teaching quest by approximately six hundred fifty certified colleagues in the Jefferson City School District which educates more than eight thousand two hundred students at eleven elementary, two middle, and two high school facilities:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Linda Eisinger as the 2004 Jefferson City Public Schools Teacher of the Year and to convey to her this legislative body's heartiest best wishes for continued personal and professional success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Linda Eisinger of Jefferson City, Missouri.
